

THE ALIBI

PSYCHOLOGICAL THRILLER · FEATURE FILM

Four suspects. One alibi. Zero trust.

Four women tied to the same powerful and abusive man become the prime suspects in his murder. To survive, they create a shared alibi, but as their lies collapse, they uncover a far more dangerous truth: the real killer has been listening the whole time.

THE HOOK

Prestige, female-driven thriller with a twisty, addictive structure.

A murder mystery where every woman is both suspect and victim until the final reveal.

Delivers the glossy tension of Big Little Lies with the mind games of Knives Out.

THE TONE

Elegant. Tense. Unpredictable.
A glamorous world hiding dangerous secrets.

THE STORY

A wealthy Atlanta businessman is found dead in his penthouse. The police zero in on four women closest to him: his ex-wife, business partner, mistress, and estranged daughter. All have motive, and all have something to hide. Under pressure from detectives and media scrutiny, they form a shaky pact to protect one another with a carefully crafted alibi. But when cracks form and evidence starts pointing to one of them, the women must face the truth: the real killer isn't part of their circle. She's been hiding in plain sight.
