

TRAP HOUSE SITTING

RECORDING IN PROGRESS

Three suburban teens are left in charge of their cousin's Atlanta loft, only to find out it's secretly the center of his music empire. What starts as house-sitting turns into viral chaos, industry sabotage, and a rooftop livestream that could launch or end a career.

TONE + COMPARABLES

A chaotic Gen Z comedy grounded in Atlanta's music scene. Think Booksmart meets Rap Sh!t with Home Alone energy. Smart, loud, heartfelt.

Comparables: Booksmart • Dope • Rap Sh!t • Sneakerella • Home Alone

CHARACTERS SNAPSHOT

Ava

The rule-following twin who becomes a hype queen

Zoe

The chaotic sister who thinks she knows trap culture

Malik

Their best friend who goes viral by accident

Plus: Lyric (rising rapper), King Drez (rival producer), and Momma Wright (the slipper-wearing scene-stealer)

WHY IT WORKS

ATLANTA AUTHENTICITY

Shot on location in Cabbagetown, Grant Park, and iconic ATL studios like Stankonia. Features up-and-coming local artists + cultural

BUILT-IN AUDIENCE

Gen Z comedy meets music fandom, creator culture, and sibling chaos = social rollout ready.

FRANCHISE POTENTIAL

Viral freestyles, rooftop livestreams, and a built-in world for spin-offs or a limited series.